IRP POA To Meet March 16 for Annual Meeting

The IRP POA will hold its annual meeting on March 16 at 10:15 am in the Marriott Ballroom. Keynote speaker is Doug Smith, chairman of the Martin County Board of Commissioners, discussing the pace of business and residential development in the County. IRP POA Board members will give important updates pertinent to residents. New this year to the annual meeting is an Artisan Show, where 15 IRP artisans living on campus will display paintings, knitting, jewelry and novels. The show will be held prior to the meeting from 9-10 am and be available after the meeting.

First Speaker Well Received at New IRP POA Series

The IRP POA began a speaker series this year, with the first speaker Tennis Villas resident Paul Bracken. Dr. Bracken, professor of business and political science at Yale University, spoke on The Global Political Economy And Where Are We Headed? Ocean House graciously offered their social room for the event. The next event will be at Bayview, which has offered their club house. Look for an email soon about it.
